Our Daddy

That's what we called him!

Was humble, yet quietly proud.

He wasn't a man of many words,
He'd let you speak and not say a word.

But if you asked, be prepared,
As often, your feelings were not spared!

He had a dry sense of humor (not everyone got)
That would lead you to chuckle (usually a lot)!

But nonetheless, he was our Daddy and Daddy he was.....
Provider, protector, and even an inspector!

He liked things just so tidy and neat,
From everything to the shoes on his feet!

He was a gentle soul, caring for those who had needs,
Never boastful or prideful, very quiet were his deeds.

We could say much more, but we'll leave that to you,
Because to those he knew... you will have your own view!

If he were here right now and you knew that look,
Then you would know it was time to close the book!

“ I only knew Andy for a short period of time but I remember him well. I met him at the Senior Center where he called bingo. He didn't know my name at first, so he called me "Jersey" because of my NJ license plate. Once he got to know me by name, before every game started, he would say, " Josie's here (my mother), Nell is here (me) and then ask how we were doing. It saddens me to know that he has passed on and that if and when the center reopens he will not be there. Andy was such a great guy! My condolences to his family. May he rest in peace
