Comments

“ My sincerest heart felt sympathy go out to John, Joyce, Wayne, Lee, Heather, Christine and spouses.
I am sorry I could not attend her services as I remain in ManorCare. But you all have my prayers as you deal with the grief of losing you loved one. But rejoice in the sure and certain hope you will meet her in Heaven. This may not seem like much comfort now, but I keep reminding myself of this thought when I reflect on my dear wife’s graduation: “God took her in His perfect timing”.

“ I am saddened to hear of Cindy's passing. I will remember her as a stalwart supporter of her husband's passion with the Civil War.
Her kindness, gentle nature and dry humor was a wonderful addition to any event. Please know that you, John, and all of your family are in our thoughts and prayers. I am sure she is with you and will watch over you until you are all together again.

“ Oh, Cindy, I will miss you forever. I loved spending time with you at Civil War events and at our home. You were always sweet and optimistic and generous. You never hesitated to march in the rain or snow, and never complained about the searing heat in Gettysburg in the summers. I'm so glad we had all those songs on New Year's Eve, and that it will be my final memory of so much time spent together with you, John, and all of our friends. May you rest in the peace you so deserve. With deep love, Maureen Hart

“ Miss Cindy, you have been a blessing to SOOO many parents and children at Calvary. My heart was broken to hear that you will no longer be there, but I look forward to the day when I can hear you say hello and we can hug again with our Savior. You will be in the hearts of many, especially mine. Love you and will miss you. Monica Winder, and Trent
