“ Edgar was always someone I enjoyed calling when letting him know our staff would be coming to see him. He was so soft spoken and always so chipper and happy even when he had just returned home from a hospital. We always knew Sundays were dedicated to spending time with his wife and church. The At Home Rehab family will always remember and cherish our memories with Edgar and he and his family will always be apart if the At Home Rehab family.

Edgar, may you rest in peace and watch over your family that loved you dearly. Thank you for allowing us into your home and life and for giving us the opportunity to take care of you. We'll see you on the other side

“ I remember Edgar so well . He used to sit right in front of me and my aunt bet (Betty Landis) and my mom mom (Janice Deitrich) at the first united Methodist church in Bristol . Me and him would always joke around with each other before church started and talking about life and wrestling a little bit . Lol . And from that church I got to meet some of his amazing family . Will Vandegrift , Heather Vandegrift ... who I started talking to a lot while we were in youth group together . Edgar to me always seemed like a humble man who always had a lot of fun and enjoyed life to the fullest . This world has definitely lost a really great human being but Heaven has gained a really great angel . Fly high with the best of them Edgar ... and we will all see you when the time comes . R.i.p. buddy .

“ My dad was one of the most fun loving people you would ever want to meet. Everyone who met him, loved him. I remember one time going to the shore and we went over the bridge into NJ and stopped at the toll booth. When the toll taker turned to give him his change, he sneezed and his teeth flew out of his mouth and hit the windshield. The toll taker didn't know what to do. The look on his face was priceless. My dad had to go the whole day down the shore without his teeth. He didn't mind because he ate ice cream all day. I will never forget this.

“ My dad was fun loving. I remember him always going to my ball games and having fun at seaside Heights, NJ. Whenever we went the "Acame" (Acme) or anywhere he always said hi to someone and had a ready smile and laugh! I'll miss that laugh and smile but will always have him in my heart. He was my friend, Grandfather and Father all in one and it was an honor to take care of him in his final days! Love you daddy!! R.I.P. See ya a lot later!! Dimitri says hi!!

“ Dad,
I want to Thank you and Mom for making me who I am today. Without your work ethics I would not be successful. I always looked up to you as my hero and best friend. I will always remember walking to Mill Street in Bristol, PA with you and getting snow cones. I will see you when I get to Heaven. I love you always.
