“My utmost condolences to the Winter family. Mr. Winter will be greatly missed. As a neighbor, I grew up seeing him outside a lot---usually working and tending to the yard, and then sitting out on the bench to relax in more recent years. It was evident that Mr. Winter loved his family (he bragged about one of his grandson's arms (tossing a football around) and another's work ethic a few years back with a smile on his face), and that he was a hard worker. I'll miss seeing him in his spot when I drive to the corner. Just his presence alone made neighbors feel safe and at ease. Much more could be said I'm sure, especially by those who knew him better, but sometimes it's hard for those closest to put their love in words for a man who loved much and meant so much to his family. May the God of all comfort and grace, comfort all who grieve in Christ:

"Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light" (Matthew 11:28-30 ESV).
