“ I will always remember your Mother and Father as nice neighbors. I enjoyed my 19 years living across the street from them. Your Mom has such a gentle soul, warm heart and loved her family. Glad I got to see her when I was up last year. May she rest in peace in the arms of our Lord.

“ Joy, Karen, Cal and families. Your Mom was such a sweet caring person. I will cherish so many memories over the years from tears shared together to uncontrollable laughter. I have so many memories of time spent at her house and I am so blessed to have known her. She raised a wonderful family and I am also blessed to know all of you. She fought a good fight and finished her race. She is safe in the arms of Jesus. My thoughts and prayers are with you all as you continue on without her. Especially you Joy. Praying God will comfort you as only he can. Reach out and hold onto his hand and he Will carry you through. I will miss you Momma M. I hope you gave my Dad and brothers a big hug and kiss as I am sure they were there to help great you. I will miss you. Till me meet again
