“ Kim was my best friend for 42 years. Her and her brother Joe were the first people who welcomed us to Bristol. They made fun of our southern accents, but we all became friends quickly. My favorite memory of our friendship is when she asked me to be her maid of honor at hers and Jacks wedding. I was only sixteen. I really had no idea what that entailed. I found out that it meant that we had to go to Silver lake hours before the wedding and catch catfish barehanded as they came over the fall. Bristol has always been my favorite place I have ever lived because of the lifelong friendship that developed between Kim and I. Thank God she met Jack who is an inspiration to everyone he meets. He adored her. Her children and grandchildren were the light of her life. REST IN PEACE NOW MY FRIEND POEY

My sister, Kim was by far the STRONGEST person I've ever known! Our Mother, was strong also, but me and my mom ageeed Kim was the strongest hands down! Kim, was a selfless, hard working, caring, with biggest heart ❤️ in the world, and she was BLESSED with the best sense of humor! Everything she went thru .. she did it with a smile.. and never complained... our last convo.. we were talking about everything she has been thru.. i said "Kim, I could never ever do what you did". I said," your the strongest person I know.. out of the 5 kids, you def took one for the team...Kims response was--- "I know, and you are all welcome". Lmbo! Kim, would do anything and I mean anything for anyone! She loved and cared for so many ppl along her way.. even when she wasn't doing too good.. she would still lend her caring hands and ❤️ would help them out the best she could! Especially, her families she worked for! God, She loved her families❤� It just breaks my heart that she was so young.. and had a whole life to live...in a way, I feel it's not fair.. but, like Kim would say, "Well, Jenn, life isn't fair all the time". You can either complain forever or you can make the best out of it... and take it on!! Life is like a card game.. Some ppl are dealt good hands and some were dealt my hand! Lol!! It's ok.. I'm good! but, I am at peace knowing she is walking.. running, dancing.. and can see again...and most of all.. she is with our parents! I take comfort in knowing they were the first ones to give her a heavenly greeting! And I know you gained your Angel 🙏 wings! Love ya, Kim 🙏 Your little sister!

When I met Kim, she basically told me .. if your are going to be in this family you need to have a good sense humor! Lol! One time We all went to Great Adeventure... and she says to me..your going on the rides with me ..not my Sister or Jack lol!!! Me being a little confused didn't realize at the time that my soon to be Wife and Brother in law didn't like Roller Coasters...lol!!! Well, let's just say it was a awesome time hanging out with my soon to be Sister in law. But, Yes she did have a awesome sense of humor. As for me maybe not so much...lol!!! But, she did welcomed me into her family with open arms. And, then, again reminds me.. Frank, if your in this family you better have a better sense of humor. Lol!!! I must say the whole family definitely had a Better sense of humor then me... Lol!! But, yes She was very easy to talk to if I needed so. Kim, was just a awesome, fun, caring loving person. That I will miss forever. But I do believe she is in a much better place. and with our Lord as well as Pop & Gram. No More pain or suffering which she never showed any of it! She Very Strong Woman that we will greatly miss. Rest Easy Kim Love you💕💕💕

Yes, Kim was one of a kind. My family and I were neighbors to Jack and Kim back in the early 80's. She loved her Jack and Jack loved her! And down through the years how nice to hear how that love continue. I would see Jack at LBH, where we both worked, I would ask Jack about Kim. He would marveled at her continued positive attitude. I marveled at his steadfast love for his wife! When one in the family is chronically ill, it affects the whole family. May it comfort you all to know that family and friends are praying for you all. And when you feel like you can't stand it any longer, take it to GOD in pray. Know that " earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal". GOD bless you all.
