

Victor K. Banks

January 26, 1982 - September 3, 2020

Victor Kameil Banks was born on January 26, 1982 in Bristol, Pennsylvania to Glynnett Herbert. As a young child, he was adventurous, outgoing and full-of-life.

Growing up, he affectionately became known as 'Kam.' He was raised in the Levittown area, where he graduated from Harry S. Truman High School. While attending Harry S. Truman, he excelled in Track and Field competing at the Penn Relays.

After high school, Victor enlisted in the United States Army where he served two combat tours in Iraq. During his 10 years of active duty, he earned numerous medals and awards including a Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, an Iraq Campaign Medal with Campaign Star, and a Combat Action Badge. He was honorably discharged in 2010, but he continued to serve his country as a reservist. During his time in the Service, Victor earned his Master of Business Administration Degree from Touro University Worldwide in 2016, Summa Cum Laude.

Victor was "big on family" and in 2004, he welcomed his daughter Kameia LaTeianna Banks. Kameia inherited Victor's competitive spirit and enjoyed bowling, running/racing and riding on his motorcycle. To Victor, Kameia was his "little Princess." With his wife Aimee, Victor shared a son, Quentin Dominic Banks. The two of them enjoyed spending time together playing video games, watching boxing and competing in basketball.

Victor had a passion for riding motorcycles and being on the open road. He worked with local organizations where he mentored local youth in boxing, physical fitness and after-school tutoring. In addition to motorcycles, Victor was an avid Philadelphia Eagles fan and found great joy when they won the 2018 Super Bowl.

Victor is predeceased by: his grandmothers Roberta Hunter and Dorothy Hadden; great-grandparents, Robert and Gladys Banks; and cousin, Sophia Handy.

Victor leaves behind to cherish his memories: his children, Kameia and Quentin; his mother, Glynnett Herbert; his nine siblings, Joan Banks, Shauna Banks, Evelyn Banks (Keith Gastearl), Michael Banks (Elizabeth), Jajhira "Kira" Herbert, Andreas "Nikki" Herbert, Jordan Fisher, Antoni Fobbs, and Artist "Art" Hines; his grandfather, Wille Hunter; his grandparents, Gwen Golar-Willis and Robert Willis; his great-grandmother, Doris Smith; his wife, Aimee Banks; his nephew, Logan Banks, with whom he shared a very special bond. He also leaves to cherish his memories a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend his viewing on Wednesday, September 16th at 9am at House of Prayer church, located at 5628 Fleeting Dr., Levittown PA 19057. A funeral service will begin at 11am at the church. Victor will be laid to rest with Military Honors at Washington Crossing National Cemetery in Newtown, PA.

“ I did not know of Victor's military nor academic achievements. He never spoke of them. Victor spoke proudly of his daughter and son, his pride and joy. May the bond that Victor nurtured for his children grow stronger.
It was no secret that he was a great Eagles fan. Loved to ride his Harley. Bar-b-quing and smoking meat was his passion. He would describe the process of marinating the meat and setting the temperature and time, it had to be right.
May his family find comfort in the beautiful memories they shared.
May you feel the love of God especially at this time.
Victor was a colleague. It is so strange to refer to him in the past tense.
May he Rest In Peace.

“ Victor was my cousin and we were very close when we were young. We used to play basketball together and I would stay the night at his house on the weekends and all summer long. My cousin and I were inseparable for a while. The fact that we were born a day apart made it so much easier. I truly miss him and am having a hard time with this loss.

“ We were living in the same city for a few years before we realized that we were only five minutes apart. We can thank Aunt Doris for that. We both loved boxing and I always enjoy your invite to your fight parties. It was always great hanging out with you cuz.
Rest well my Brother In Arms.
